

Schedule 2 –Family Dispute Resolution Practitioner’s Fees

|                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                                                                                                                    |
|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Pre-mediation appointments (90 minutes)When mediation is sought in relation to both parenting and financial matters additional time is sometimes required, in which case a further one hour appointment will be booked and billed as ‘Additional work’ | $ 450.00 – standard less fee for invitation to participate, if invitation sent prior to pre-mediation appointment |
| Invitation to participateIncludes sending initial invitation and follow up communication                                                                                                                                                               | $ 250.00Only charged if invitation sent prior to intake                                                       |
| Joint session (half-day)3 hour appointment                                                                                                                                                                                                             | $ 1,100.00 per party                                                                                              |
| Joint session (full-day)7 hour appointment (incl. 1 hour lunch break)                                                                                                                                                                                  | $ 1,800.00 per party                                                                                              |
| Room hireOnly required for in person mediations                                                                                                                                                                                                        | By negotiation                                                                                                     |
| Additional workAdditional work will only be undertaken after a quote is provided and approved                                                                                                                                                          | $ 400.00 per hour                                                                                                 |
| Issue of s60I certificates60I certificates will only be issued when permitted by legislation and when fees for other provided services have been paid                                                                                                  | No additional fee                                                                                                  |

All fees are inclusive of GST.

Payment is required within 5 business days of an invoice being issued (or within 24 business hours if the appointment is being booked less than 5 business days ahead).

Cancellation fees

Cancellation fees are only payable when an appointment is cancelled with less than 5 business days notice.

|                                                                                                                                                                                                     |                                     |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------|
| Joint session cancellation feeThe cancellation fee will be payable by the client who cancelled the session (or divided equally between the clients, if cancelled by both clients) | 50% of total fees for joint session |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------|

Fees for additional work will only be refunded if cancellation occurs prior to Liz or Renee undertaking the work. In the event of a cancellation fees will only be refunded if Liz or Renee are able to secure a refund for the room booking.